

28th Annual Conference Program

Afro-American Genealogical and Historical Society of Chicago, Inc.

“Take the Long Road Not the Short Cut” Saturday, October 9, 2010

Time	Event
8:00 – 9:00	Registration/ Deluxe Continental Breakfast, Theme: “Breakfast with the Historians” Exhibits/Vendors
9:00 – 9:15	Conference Opening Session and Welcome Angela McGhee, AAGHSC President “A Memorial to Muriel Braxton Wilson”
9:15-10:45	Keynote “ A Conversation with History ”: Dr. Margaret T. Burroughs, Founder, DuSable Museum, Timuel D. Black, Historian/Sociologists, William “Bill” Garth, Sr., Chicago Citizen Newspaper Editor/Publisher, Jefferson R. Perry, Realtor
10:45-11:00	Break
11:00-12:15 Concurrent Sessions
	S1- “ One Record Leads to Another and Another ” – Sheila Smith, PhD.
	S2- “ Advanced Slave Genealogy ” – Julius Crouch
	S3- “ Creative Writing: Family History ” – Cheryl Gaines, M.D.
12:30p.m.	LUNCH
1:30-2:45 General Session	S4 “ The Good, The Bad and The Beautiful: Tracing Lives in Court Records ” – Michael Everman
3:00-4:15 Concurrent Sessions
	S5 “ Advanced Slave Genealogy ” (a repeat) – Julius Crouch
	S6 Query Writing Workshop - Nettie Nesbary
	S7 Study Group Chairs and Special Group Project Panel
4:30 – 5:00pm	Closing Session – Angela McGhee: Raffle, Response, Survey
6:00	Conference Dinner – – Harambee House 11901 S. Loomis St., Chicago, IL 60643